From the President

I'm happy to report that it is a perfectly sunny, warm and breezy day as I write this. Yes! We really earn these gorgeous days here in New England, don't we? Here are my short and sweet comments for June.

This last Messenger of the church year is about endings and beginnings.

I hope you'll be able to join the Saco and Sanford congregations on June 17th as we bid a fond and grateful farewell to Rev Steve. You'll find details about this farewell potluck picnic elsewhere in this issue of The Messenger.

And I hope you'll be at the first Sunday service of the new church year in September, when we'll welcome our new minister - Rev Shay MacKay! I am very excited to be embarking on this new, shared journey.

It is with thanks to all of you that I step down from the role of president. We've talked to each other, we've listened to each other and we've accomplished much together in the last 3 years. Now I look forward to finding new ways to serve our beloved community.

Have a wonderful summer! See you at a summer service?

Warm regards,

Niki

Along the Way

Dear Friends of Sanford and Saco/Biddeford,

So we are bringing to a close our two-year journey. I don't know about you, but in some ways it seems to me less, and in some ways more, than two years, perhaps because we packed so much work into them. There was a crucial question before you in the 2016-17 church year: would you continue as you had been, two separate churches who just happened to share the same minister, one half-time each, or would you together call a full-time, equivalent minister with the purpose of creating an intentional, joint ministry? You held important things in common—your UU identity, your shared commitment to the liberal religious journey, your historic ministries within two Maine communities not that far apart. Yet, there was an important difference between you. In recent years, you'd had different experiences of ministry and congregational governance that shaped different understandings of the role a minister could play, and should play, in your congregational lives. In eight cottage meetings, both churches explored that question and other aspects of how you might share a minister—and a ministry—with real intention and what that could mean for your future. With faith in the process but most importantly, with faith in yourselves, you chose a forward-looking path. You chose a hard-working ministerial search committee and set out on the first steps along a path that led you to call Rev. Shay. Now you will journey together into the future, a future that for both churches, like all such visions, is only partially known. Your way leads on together, for that has been your courageous choice.

It has been my privilege to share the start of that journey with you. I am grateful to the Spirit that called us to together and sustained us through two years of Maine winters, a long-distance commuter ministry and all the vicissitudes of church life—times two! I am grateful for your kindness and patience, your good humor and understanding, but most of all for your courage. There was no sense, when we started out two years ago, that this was a “done deal;” that all we had to do was walk the well-worn interim path. To some extent, we made it up as we went along and we made no assumptions about where it was going to lead us—but walking and working together as we did, the way brought us to the beginning of a new era in the long story of these two historic churches. Serving you has been a fulfilling ministry; via Facebook and the like, I will take great pleasure in following you from afar.

And now my way, too, leads on. Good things are developing for me and soon I will be able to share that with you. I am thankful for the kind interest so many have expressed in “what's next” for me, and most especially for the expressions of thanks and appreciation I have received for my work with you. You are most, most welcome, and I offer you my thanks in return, for no amount of transitional leadership can be successful without the good faith and hard work of the congregation itself and this you have given me—times two!

With sincere prayers to the God of my understanding for you and Rev. Shay, may we all be blessed as the way leads on!

Rev. Steve

Music Notes

Music Notes from Choir Director, Ellie R.

"Our (UU) music needs to tell the story of who we are. We need to sing who we say we are."

~Rev. Jason Shelton

Choir & Choir Rehearsals - didn't make the 5/20 rehearsal - no worries. Just let me know you want to sing on these two dates and I'll get the rehearsal tracks out to you.

June 3 - 8:45 Rehearsal; Singing in Church

June 10 - 8:45 Rehearsal; Singing in Church

June 17 - No Choir

Music Ministry Team

Do you enjoy having music in church? Do you like the idea of having different people offering special music? Different types of music? Different instruments?

- Would you like to see our Music Ministry grow? Larger choir? Children's Choir? Special Music Sundays? Organ Concert? Open Mic/Coffee Houses? Other guest musicians?
- Are there things about our Music Ministry that you don't like and you'd like your voice to be heard to change them?
- Are you interested in learning how to use the extended sound system in the sanctuary and be a technician from time to time on Sunday morning or for other events at the church?
- This is just a short list of how our Music Ministry might expand and ultimately reach out into the greater community. If you are drawn to this idea, being part of the Music Ministry team may be your calling for 2018-2019. You don't need to sing or play an instrument to be involved. You just need to love music and want a way to offer your time and talent to help this part of our ministry grow.

Sound System Training: Marty M., our former sound system technician has offered to meet with me and anyone else who is interested to learn how to use the extended sound system in the sanctuary. We don't have a date yet - but let me know if you're interested and we'll schedule something for this summer. We also need someone to write down the instructions so we'll always have a back up plan! Let me know if you'd like to join us!

Cycle of Song - UU Choir Festival: UU minister, composer, arranger and choral conductor Jason Shelton has been writing music for our denomination for many years (e.g. Fire of Commitment, Standing on the Side of Love - both in our teal hymnal 'Singing the Journey'). After 19 years serving as Music Minister at First UU church in Nashville he has embarked on a new journey as a freelance musician of music, working to grow our capacity to sing our UU faith. Rosemary S. and I traveled to Massachusetts on 5/19 for an all-day workshop to pre-view his latest collection of songs: 'Cycle of Song: Anthems for Small UU Church Choirs (Vol. 1)'. It was amazing to sing through this book with almost 200 other singers. Looking forward to having our choir sing these beautiful songs that truly reflect who we, as UU's, say we are.

Morning Song: At 9:45 on the 2nd Sunday of each month I am in the sanctuary leading 'gathering singing'. Please join us in singing! If you prefer not to sing, please sit quietly in the sanctuary and enjoy the music or gather with friends in the parish hall or hallway for conversation. The next 'Morning Song' is June 10.

See page 7 To Meet Clarissa in the Choir Loft

Please Wear Your Nametag

We're very fortunate to have many new people attending our church. This makes wearing our nametags all the more important. Please be sure to pick up your nametag and wear it to the service AND coffee hour.

The Membership/Welcoming Committee has designed a new nametag board to hold clip-on tags, so you do not have to pin tags through your clothing. There is a basket next to the door so it will be easier to drop your nametag before leaving. If you need a new nametag, please see the signup sheet on the nametag board.

Information

Want to find out more about our church? Thinking about becoming a member?

To learn more about our congregation:

Please speak to any member or someone from the Membership- Welcoming Committee. Plan to attend a Sharing Your Spiritual Journey orientation.

To learn more about our faith and practice:

Various aspects of Unitarian Universalism are explained in brochures kept in a rack as you enter the sanctuary. You are welcome to take these home. You can also talk with members of our congregation.

Our Church:

We are a voluntary association of those committed to this special religious community. We share common values, but we do not require or expect conformity to any specific religious beliefs. We welcome each person's spiritual exploration and expression. Web sites www.uuchurchsacoiddeford.com, or www.uua.org, contain more information on the traditions, activities and people of our church and association. Our Membership-Welcoming Committee is also willing to assist you.

Our Membership:

Those who sign the Membership Book agree to sustain our church through continuing contributions of time, effort and financial support. All members are part of the non-profit corporation that owns the church, and they govern it through democratic process in which each one is entitled to be heard. Members elect a Board of Trustees and must also approve the "call" of a minister to our pulpit. By participating in our worship, events and activities, you'll get a sense of how this congregation might work in your life, and you in the life of the congregation. As you discover the privileges and responsibilities of membership, we recommend that you take the time to:

- Attend a Sharing Your Spiritual Journey orientation offered by the Membership Committee to find out more about Unitarian Universalism and our church's history and traditions.
- Attend church for a while to get to know the community and think about whether you share in our common values and feel ready to make a commitment to the shared spiritual journey.
- Decide your financial and time commitment to this church community.

When you're ready, speak to the chair of Membership or president about signing the Membership Book!

Who's in the Choir Loft?

This year's 'Music Notes' has focused on the folks who sing in the choir. I have asked everyone to fill out a short questionnaire and I'll highlight one choir member each month. This month is Clarissa Frost.

1) Reflect on your experience in the UUCSB

Choir: I have lots of reasons for joining the choir. I have a high opinion of Ellie and her leadership. She tries to get to know her choir members and chooses choir music that will respond to the theme of the service and to the abilities of her individual choir members. I was happy to not have to audition and I've learned a lot from Ellie. For the most part I find the experience very satisfactory and I like when people in the congregation particularly enjoy what we offer. I really enjoy singing and I feel like we are offering a service to the church with our singing.

2) How long have you been a UU? I joined UUCSB in 2005 and joined the choir at that time. I had a night job for several years and couldn't make it to Sunday morning so I stopped coming. When I retired I re-joined the church in 2012. I was very burnt out after that experience and the choir was a big help in my healing.

3) How is singing part of your spiritual life? I'm not sure what the higher power is exactly but I believe there is one. Sometimes there's a hole in my heart from circumstances in the past. Singing just lifts me up and makes me feel wanted and needed and loved. I enjoy it so much and have learned so much about music. I've also learned about working with other people and singing together as a group.

4) Other music experiences: I was a Girl Scout for 13 years and did a lot of singing then. I sang in the Glee Club in high school for 2 years. I sang in a large auditioned community choir in Massachusetts. Currently I sing with Voices in Harmony, a local community choir in Saco. I am also a member of Harbour Singers, a group that sings to people at end of life.

5) Other interests, hobbies: I love to read. I like to cook. I like to travel but don't get to do it as often as I'd like. I used to enjoy sewing but don't do so much anymore because of my eyesight. I like to swim and I love to walk. I might pick a walk I haven't done just to see what that part of Saco might be like.

6) Occupation: I'm currently retired. I worked a lot at home doing housework and watching my younger siblings through high school. I've worked in a bakery and in the food service in a hospital. Although I have a Master's degree as a dietician I never worked in that field. I've worked in a prison as an assistant cook. I've made sails and other things for boats. My last job entailed working with mentally challenged women and helping them to dress. I also cooked food for them and took them places.

7) Travels and favorite places: When I was a girl my parents would take us to Maine to visit friends in Bridgeton at Long Lake. When I was in 6th grade I went to Washington D.C. with the Girl Scouts. I went to the Girl Scout Round-Up in 1965 in Idaho between my Junior and Senior year of high school. As a Senior I went to Ottawa, Canada for 2 weeks, also with the Girl Scouts. . I visited my brother in California. I've been to Nevada for a conference so I didn't get to travel around much. I really do enjoy traveling and do as much as I can. I've visited a friend in New Jersey and Pennsylvania and enjoyed seeing these different areas. I'm from Marblehead, Massachusetts originally but I enjoy going back there.

8) Favorite kinds of music? I like a lot of the hymns we sing in church and the songs that the choir sings. I listen to public radio and enjoy Celtic music. I love to listen to sea shanty music as well as rock and roll. I like some of today's popular music but I don't like some of it too. Growing up in the 1950's my neighbors would always be playing music and I'd sit on the front steps listening to the popular music of that time. I loved the Kingston Trio.

Worship Committee Notes

The Worship committee is actively seeking new members – and a new chair!

The upcoming church year of 2018-19 should be an exciting one for worship:

We look forward to welcoming our new settled minister, Rev. Shay McKay and to co-create meaningful, engaging and lively worship that will build and sustain our church community and hopefully grow our membership. We especially hope to attract more families and have children present in our sanctuary again. Rev. Shay has shared some of her ideas to make worship services more participatory and we are eager to see these ideas being implemented. Since Rev. Shay has offered to lead three services per month both in Saco and Sanford, our task of filling the pulpit with guest worship leaders will be much easier.

If you want to be part of this exciting journey and help shape worship in our congregation, please consider joining our committee. We will meet with Shay and the Sanford Worship Associates sometime in August to plan for the church year. In addition, we meet once in the fall and once in the spring.

Meret is stepping down from committee work to spend the next year focusing on her daughter's senior year and graduation. She'll be back when she needs to fill the empty nest that is sure to come.

For the time being, tasks of the committee are split up as follows:

Niki Norman is contact person for Brian and will take care of website and messenger postings

Tom Muise is contact for Sanford worship associates, for RE, music director and the coven

Jane Perkins will be Shay's contact and affiliate of the worship assistants, and maintain the worship calendar

Sonja Gerken will continue to post worship topics on the white board and sandwich sign

You see these are all folks who are involved with many church tasks – so consider giving them a hand and expanding the committee. Contact any of them for questions. They will welcome you with open arms!
