- Thoughts from Rev. Lori

Happy Friday!

We are shifting our focus and service this Sunday to welcome two new members into our fold. They have both been here since I began in January so I feel like they have always been here. Sunday it becomes momentous, auspicious, and official. They have already become part of our tapestry and are both elbows deep into the life of our Church. Sunday is a day to mark their commitment and to mark the new “us” that we are becoming. Some words from Victoria Weinstein

“We never really know what combination of fate and friendship and good luck it is that brings certain people together in this world for any purpose. But we believe that membership in the church calls each of us here to celebrate the fate that has drawn us together, and to regard each one a spiritual friend and a potential teacher, even of occasional hard lessons.”

I invite you to review those words in our lectio divina manner:
READ them out loud and in your head
MEDITATE on them paying attention to a word or phrase or sentence that stands out to you
PRAY about what this means for you in this time and place
CONTEMPLATE take it all with you today and through the weekend when we join together on Sunday

Peace and Blessings
Rev. Lori
