- Share the Plate – December – The Maine Way, Inc.

This organization's goal is to provide resources and affordable housing to assist people in their transition from homelessness to independence. The Maine Way owns a house located at 73 South Street in Biddeford. The house has seven private rooms, a common kitchen and living room as well as a computer room. The private rooms provide affordable housing for qualified individuals for up to 18 months. There is a live-in manager who resides in a self-contained apartment on site. We believe this opportunity allows our residents to focus on obtaining the life skills needed to integrate themselves back into the community. Visit website <https://themaineawayinc.org/>
