- Thoughts from Rev. Lori

Hello Good People,

We will have the great good fortune on this 5th Sunday of having Rev. Todd Glacy with us this weekend filling the sanctuary with music and wondering together about what truth is?

A big question for ushering out April! I offer one of my favorite prayers to consider these next few days leading into Sunday: It is attribute to Rabbi Bachman of Bratzlav

Grant me the ability to be alone, May it be my custom to go outdoors each day among the trees and grasses, among all growing things, and enter into prayer to talk with the one that I belong to.

Read this through a couple of times out loud and in your mind

Notice what word or sentence stands out to you

Wonder why those stood out for you

Take them with you these next few days to deepen your understanding.

Peace and Blessings
